

Professional Conduct and Expectations

Students Expect:

A learning environment that is characterized by appropriate challenges, support, and sense of community. To learn to navigate successful life and career paths that continually develop the self and contribute to society while exhibiting a consistent set of ethical behaviors.

VSB Expects:

A demonstrated commitment to the learning process, ethical behavior, and recognition of co-responsibility for the creation of the learning environment