

Repeating Courses

Students are not required to repeat courses in which the grade of F has been received unless the courses are specifically required by their graduate program. The Graduate Business office does not permit grade replacement and the original grade of F will be computed in the cumulative GPA even if the student retakes the course and earns a passing grade. Students are only permitted to repeat a given course one time.