

Posting of Grades

The Registrar's Office maintains a schedule of grade posting for each semester. Course instructors are given a start date and a deadline for which they can enter in their grades. Students who require grades by a certain deadline due to their company's reimbursement policy should be aware of these deadlines and communicate them to their employer in advance.