

EMB 1040: Financial Reporting & Analysis

Understand and analyze an annual report including the three primary financial statements and selected key footnotes. Understanding financial statements requires a grasp of accounting terminology, business transactions and fundamental accounting concepts. Ratios and other means will be used to analyze financial statements and measure performance. The class sessions will be highly interactive and case-based. Proficiency with excel is helpful.

Credits: 3.0

Program: EMB (Executive MBA)